WonderChess supports
Boys & Girls Club and City of Gulfport with WonderGames donation

Seattle – December 1, 2009 – Every year, WonderChess LLC donates their WonderGames to schools and non-profit organizations as an on-going effort to contribute to children’s education and to give back to the community. Last year, they selected two local organizations - Seattle Children’s Hospital and El Centro de la Raza. This year, they reached beyond their local community and chose the Boys & Girls Clubs of Central Oregon and the City of GulfPort’s Visit with St. Nick program. Over 1,000 children will receive a WonderGame gift this Christmas.

“In today’s tough economic times, we are especially pleased to provide a fun, unplugged, brain-building gift to a child who may otherwise go without this holiday season,” says WonderChess founder Michel Alvarez.

Aileen Winge a volunteer at the Boys and Girls Clubs of Central Oregon explains, “Deschutes County, where the majority of our Clubs are located, has one of the highest unemployment rates in the nation.”

“These organizations do an excellent job in providing after school programs and full day summer programs for hundreds of under-privileged children,” Alvarez adds.
